

JUST BE JUST

Be yourself, be clean, be kind, be beautiful be practical, creative, logical, open and original be conscious, be aware, sensitive, be sensible, sensual, sentimental take care of yourself and know your body, know your mind, know where you're going mostly all of the time, be responsible, responsive, reach for autonomy, realize your dreams, be healthy, be helpful, be hopeful, not doubtful, be safe, be courageous, don't fear death, it's just a transition, don't get rattled, complete your mission, serve yourself, take the road less travelled, look inside for answers but ask others if u must and just be just

Open your mind
feel the presence of light shines at the right time

Sometimes you feel like you'll never live something that's real but it's just in your mind you must trust that it all will be fine

When you feel free then you know just who to be you should choose to believe what you feel in your soul is the goal to behold so be bold

Sweet pea
my plea to be me completely

you must believe to just achieve my love and your love we know that they will be exactly what you need we then use it to see discover that the key is love and we'll be free be a child of the universe, be at peace with God, be godly, be good, be holy life's unfolding as it should be a doer, a generator, practice, be persistent, embrace difference, honor your own existence cause it can only serve to enhance your aura, karma, prahna build your home, keep it clean, warm and welcoming, speak to strangers and welcome them, even just to say hello, know no one's above you, no one is below you, they don't know you, you don't know them make whoever you can a friend unless they got bad energy then just let it be meditate, drink V8, lose weight, shoot straight, don't lie to loved ones, just love them

Open your heart let it guide your life you'll see love is ours
